Scener For Chrome

Scener is the Chrome extension that will bring you closer to your friends, wherever they're situated. It allows you to watch Netflix with anybody far away from you, with chat and a whole other bunch of functions. It's your ticket to keeping your friends close even when you're far away from them. It's an easy-to-use add-on, and free above all. You can do more than just watch Netflix with others. If you're under the impression that all this extension does is synchronize what you watch on Netflix with someone else, you're wrong. It's much more. You can chat, via video or text, all while watching your favorite shows. You can binge-watch with your friends from the other side of the continent or planet. It won't replace the real thing, but it sure comes close to actually doing it, which is scary and amazing at the same time. You can even create groups and track who's online. Two other features that are part of this extension have to do with group creation and tracking who's online. If it's hard for you to track who's online and who's willing to join the fun, why not do both. Create a group with all your friends and check up on them hassle-free. No time will be wasted searching for them. Create more groups, depending on the circles of individuals you frequent. You will save time and be close to your friends. Scener is an extension that integrates many aspects relating to the social and entertainment group of activities. You get to socialize and watch shows with your friends free of charge. Of course, you are required to possess a valid Netflix subscription for this to work, but you probably knew that already. Go ahead and try this extension and decide if it does indeed live up to your expectations.
